

I think the do not call list is wonderful. I pay for my phone every month on a very limited pension and feel I should make and receive only calls that I want